We welcome New Members! Send this letter to your friends, bring them to our events. In February, we sent our annual Membership Appeal.

If you have not responded yet, This IS the time. We know you are overwhelmed with charity requests;

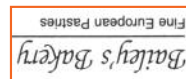

however, it is not an exaggeration to say that by supporting YAI's mission you are saving a truly endangered species:

if we do not support these exceptional, dedicated and brave young musicians — where will the world be with the cultural values of today?

credit cards accepted online @ www.YoungArtists.org • YAI FIN: 95-4618040 501(c)(3) non-profit organization

We are in transition to change our name to iPalpiti Artists International to fully reflect the caliber & professionalism of the young artists of our featured orchestral ensemble known as iPalpiti. As we focus on one name, iPalpiti Artists International, we hope to build a stronger single identity. Your donations can be written either to Young Artists International or iPalpiti Artists International. Our 501(c)(3) status remains the same.

Dear Friends,

In about two months 23 artists will arrive to LA from 19 countries (see the list on the next page) to participate in the 11th annual iPalpiti International Laureates Festival. Beginning a second decade, we do not rest on the laurels of achievements of our first 10 years: the quality and quantity of cultural programs we have given to the community; the assistance we have provided to the careers of exceptional young musicians; and, most gratifying, the lifetime friendships and cultural connections we helped forge among 200+ artists from all over the world.

The upcoming 11th Festival will be a testament of new discoveries, new music, and another great week in the summer classical cultural life in LA.

We thank you for the many years of your generous and continuing support, and every year we need it more than ever! iPalpiti is invited again as artists-in-residence at Temple University in Philadelphia, with concerts at Kimmel Center and a return to Carnegie Hall in March 2009, a tour in Scandinavia in the summer of 2009, and a "retreat" concert in Vevey, Switzerland, in December 2008.

Eduard Schmieder conducting the iPalpiti orchestra at Carnegie Zankel Hall, Sayako Kusaka, soloist Nan Melville for The New York Times

Few of our members are aware that when we bring artists to Los Angeles, iPalpiti/YAI covers their international travel (& you know the costs nowadays!), hotel accommodations, all meals, and gives awards. Every Festival we produce memorable brochures with each artist's photo & bio, and listing every sponsor.

Visit our website and meet the Artists of 2008 – it is not too late yet to "adopt" one. Call us!

Please show your support by booking Festival tickets right now (see order form inside)
We will greatly appreciate your attention to our WISH LIST!

It will be my honor to welcome each of you personally at all Festival events!

Laura Schmieder, Director

iPalpiti on stage of Disney Hall, after performance of Golijov's Last Round

"... a fitting name for the vibrant string orchestra from which the conductor Eduard Schmieder elicited a lively pulse... the ensemble was particularly noteworthy for its unity of purpose and blend. It was as if the musicians' hearts were beating to the same buoyant rhythm... lustrous, polished tone and graceful phrasing."

— Vivien Schweitzer, New York Times (2007)

Artist Highlights

The Soloists with iPalpiti at Disney Hall on July 26:

Alexandru Tomescu, State Soloist of Romania

We are delighted to WELCOME Alexandru back! An iPalpiti alumnus, Alexandru was the FIRST violinist selected for the FIRST International Laureates Festival in 1998. He has returned to iPalpiti festivals in 1999, 2000, and to Los Angeles on numerous occasions, including touring engagements, such as the Jose Iturbi series at the Cerritos Center of Performing Arts. This summer he will be a soloist with iPalpiti in the Malcolm Arnold Concerto for two violins, together with Catharina Chen from Norway. Alexandru will perform on Stradivarius "Elder" violin which he received from The Culture Ministry of Romania by winning the competition designating a violinist who will be entitled to use that violin for the next 5 years. We are very excited to hear Alexandru performing on this great instrument during the Festival!

Catharina Chen is known in Los Angeles for her performances with iPalpiti since 2004, as a soloist with the Beverly Hills Symphony, and as a solo recitalist in concert series in California. As a grand-prize winner of the Gnessin International Violin Competition in Moscow in 2003, where she also won "Best Artistic Performance," she was selected to Young Artists International's iPalpiti program, and since has performed with iPalpiti on the stages of Mozarteum Grosse Hall Salzburg, Carnegie Hall, and Disney Hall. Born in Oslo, Norway in 1985, Catharina has soloed with all major orchestras in Norway, is well known to Norwegians through television and radio, and is the recipient of numerous international awards, including the highly respected and prestigious Oslo City Culture Prize. In 2007, she toured China with an all-Grieg program in Shanghai, Hangzhou, Qingdao International Music Festival, and as a soloist with Qingdao and Shanghai Symphony Orchestras.

Elena Kawazu: iPalpiti "Junior"

"...a small girl playing an equally diminutive violin, played the Mendelssohn concerto with a strong personality and dramatic sense" — The Strad (2008)

Born in California, 10-year-old Elena Kawazu made her orchestral debut at age 9 with Staatskapelle Weimar in Germany, performing the Mendelssohn Concerto, and later, with Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra. Elena already has performed in Japan, Portugal, Italy, Germany, and England, and was featured on WFMT radio. Her engagements this year include her NY debut at the Carnegie Weill Recital Hall in April, and a solo recital concert tour in the United States. Not a novice in international competitions (Italy, England), in 2007 Elena won the 2nd prize and a special award at the 5th International Louis Spohr Competition being the youngest contestant. This is where Maestro Eduard Schmieder was on the Jury, and was so impressed that he came home wanting to "share" his find. Our youngest so far was Polish pianist Stanislaw Drzewiecki, who at 15, already had a SONY contract. Elena will be presented as a first-time iPalpiti "Junior" performing Carmen Fantasy by Sarasate with iPalpiti orchestra. DON'T MISS IT, SO 10 years from now, you can TELL EVERYONE, "I heard her first at Disney Hall with iPalpiti!" AND, just added to the schedule: a special "for kids" open dress rehearsal performance on Friday July 25, 2PM, at Salter Theatre, BHHS. See ticket order page for details.

Sayako Kusaka, violinist (Japan) – appointed as First Concertmaster of Konzerthaus Orchester Berlin (formerly Berlin Symphony Orchestra founded by Kurt Sonderling). Aside from the prestige of the position itself, it is a most unusual feat for a Japanese musician – and woman – to win this position in a German orchestra.

Cameron Carpenter, organist (USA) signed a multi-album record contract with TELARC® Digital.

Telarc® President Robert Woods: "He was, to me, an amazing combination of a first rate musician, a superb entertainer, and an unbelievable technical whiz. We certainly know and accept that some of what Cameron does is on the edge and will be controversial for some, but he will never be boring."

The first album, Revolutionary, is scheduled for worldwide release in stores and on iTunes™ on September 23, 2008. Revolutionary will be a CD+DVD: the CD will include the world premiere of Cameron's Love Song No. 1 (2008) and his forthcoming Retrospective Edition of J. S. Bach's Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor BWV 565. The DVD will contain a three-camera shoot of Cameron performing Chopin's Revolutionary Etude, J. S. Bach's Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor in Cameron's edition, and Vladimir Horowitz' Variations on a Theme from Bizet's 'Carmen'.

Alexandru Tomescu – won the Stradivarius "Elder" violin from The Culture Ministry of Romania. The violin belongs to the state and the competition designates a violinist who will be entitled to use that violin for the next 5 years. We look forward to hearing Alexandru performing on this great instrument during the Festival!

Gabor Szabo, violinist (Hungary) – accepted position as assistant concertmaster in Barcelona Orquestra Sinfonica del Valles.

Daniel Nix, double bassist (Canada) – recorded Gavin Bryars's concerto Farewell to St. Petersburg with the Pärnu City Orchestra and Estonian national Male Choir. Recording will be released by GB Records in the autumn.

iPalpiti in New York

Under the patronage of Charles Avery & Susan Fisher, East Coast Benefactors Concerts thrive as established musicales. Second “season” finale was celebrated on May 4th, featuring five iPalpiti artists: violinists Catharina Chen, Aisha Dossumova, Mari-Liis Pakk, and cellists Jason Calloway & Yves Dharamraj.

In the spirit of Maestro Schmieder’s continuing 60th birthday celebration, a surprise musical souvenir was performed: “Bagatelle,” composed for the occasion by iPalpiti alumni violinist/composer Gabriel Bussi (Uruguay).

New York Benefactors Concerts hosted by Mr. & Mrs. Fisher at their home, presented in October-November, February, and May.

Hernando Courtright is iPalpiti East Coast Vice Chair.

Joyce and Aubrey Chernick hosted a celebration of Maestro & Israel’s 60th birthdays.

Artistic Advisor cellist Nathaniel Rosen performed with pianist Ayke Agus and Eduard in encore trios.

Each Festival, we provide FREE tickets to the iPalpiti concert at Disney Hall to at least 200 students from local schools that operate in the summer, and about the same to local non-profit organizations that help abused children and teenagers at risk. Sometimes, THIS IS THEIR ONLY CHANCE IN THE YEAR TO DRESS UP AND COME IN CONTACT WITH SOCIETY. Add to this an opportunity to hear a classical concert performed by laureates (a word many never heard before!) from many countries, and there is a lasting impression, with longing to hear it again. ESPECIALLY THIS YEAR, A CHANCE TO HEAR PHENOMENAL iPalpiti “Junior”! A SPONSOR is needed for our STUDENT COALITION FOR THE ARTS program. Each FREE ticket has a cost, and we need funds to produce the festival, and in turn, help iPalpiti musicians, who, while rich cultural-ly, are extremely poor financially. CALL 310.205 0511 to ask HOW YOU CAN HELP.
