FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

iPalpiti* Festival's Pulse of Music Beats Strong in its 3rd Decade

LOS ANGELES, CA (March 26, 2018) – The “world-class” iPalpiti Festival of International Laureates opens its 21st season July 7 at Walt Disney Concert Hall with a gala concert celebrating Maestro Eduard Schmieder’s 70th birthday. The festival is celebrated as “the highlight of the summer [in Los Angeles]”, and this year will include a post-concert dinner reception at the Founders Hall. The program will feature MAESTRO FAVORITES, including Bach’s Chaconne, Anton Webern’s Langsamer Satz, Tchaikovsky’s Rococo Variations, and Mussorgsky Pictures at an Exhibition.

Featuring twenty-five international laureates from 22 countries including Ecuador, Turkey, Italy, Japan, Azerbaijan, Ireland and more, the acclaimed ensemble is known as the “United Nations of Classical Music.” Starting with an artistic residence at Soka Performing Arts Center on June 28, the festival will present 14 concerts in prestigious venues throughout the Greater Los Angeles and San Diego Counties, concluding with a July 18 concert at Greystone Mansion in Beverly Hills. Between the Disney Hall and Greystone Mansion concerts, iPalpiti laureate soloists will be featured in solo and chamber ensembles, performing works by Janacek, Schubert, Berio, Brahms, Reger, Ripper, Schumann and Auerbach.

Since its inception as a non-profit in Los Angeles in 1997 by Russian émigré musicians Eduard and Laura Schmieder, with the blessing and support of the late, great violinist Lord Yehudi Menuhin, iPalpiti has been supporting, promoting and developing the careers of exceptional young professional classical musicians.

“Classical music is the spiritual factor which brings people together and unites them irrespective of religion and culture, appealing to sublime senses,” stated Maestro Schmieder. In a spirit of giving to the community, iPalpiti ensures that a good proportion of its Festival performances are free to the public, and for paid performances gives a significant number of tickets (over 600) to under-served community organizations, shelters, youth music programs, public schools, and non-profit agencies serving economically disadvantaged and special needs groups. Local outreach programs include Student Coalition for the Arts and Mentor Program, this season with 300+ local schools’ 5-12th graders.

Tickets range from $10 - $180. For the Disney Concert Hall performance, tickets are available through iPalpiti or at the Walt Disney Concert Hall Box Office. For ALL 2018 festival and gala tickets, or to donate to the organization, please call (310) 205-0511 or visit www.iPalpiti.org.
